Texas residents who apply for admission (or readmission) to Texas public colleges or universities and enroll as undergraduate students may be able to begin a new course of study with a clear academic record under Section 51.931, Texas Education Code.

If you are a Texas resident who has credits for college courses taken 10 or more years prior to the planned enrollment date, the “Academic Fresh Start” law allows you to have those credits ignored for enrollment purposes.

Note: This is an all or nothing option. You are not able to pick and choose which courses to ignore and which courses to count. If you choose the “Academic Fresh Start” option, you will not receive any credit for any courses you took 10 or more years ago.

This means that:

- Courses taken previously cannot be used to fulfill new prerequisite requirements.
- Courses taken previously cannot be counted towards your new degree.
- Courses taken previously will not be counted in your new GPA calculations.

I understand the Academic Fresh Start provisions of this law and my admission as a student under this law.
